Larry and Esther Lutz will be celebrating their 50th Wedding Anniversary on Saturday, September 19th, from 12:30-4pm at the fellowship hall. The couple was married September 18, 1965, at St. John's Lutheran Church in Champaign. The congregation is invited to attend this reception. May God bless this very special couple!

The confirmation class will be meeting with Pastor McPike after church on September 27th, with lunch and catechism class to follow.

LWML Fall Rally will be held here at Osman this week. It will begin with registration at 9 AM THIS THURSDAY. Registration is $10. There will be a program led by Karen Ruhlig who will speak on her ministry in Poland. A Bible study, songs, a skit, a business meeting, and a meal will also be included in the day. The request for the ingathering is a new toy, suitable for a child from kindergarten to sixth grade which will be given through Salt and Light. All ladies of the congregation are invited to attend.

Any LWML member who is planning to attend the Fall Rally, please meet with Alicia in the annex after church TODAY.

Thank you to the 11 members who cleaned the church and hall on Friday. Many hands allowed the job to get done very quickly, and it looks great!

A belated thank you to Donnie and Connie Warsaw for trimming all of the bushes around the church a few weeks ago. It makes the church property look very nice!

Mark your calendars now! The hayride and wiener roast will be held on Sunday, September 27th.
