Welcome in Jesus' Name

Lutherans believe that Jesus Christ is present in the Sacrament so that we receive His true body and blood along with the bread and wine (Mark 14:22, 24; 1 Corinthians 10:16). We further believe that in this Sacrament, we receive the forgiveness of sins (Matthew 26:28) and strength to live an improved Christian life (Galatians 2:20). A worthy communicant is one who is truly repentant of his/her sins and who resolves to amend his/her life (1 Corinthians 11:28). Furthermore, this Sacrament is not only a communion with Christ (Matthew 18:20; 1 Corinthians 10:16), but also with one another (1 Corinthians 10:17; Acts 2:42). Those desiring to commune with us for the first time should register with the pastor in his office BEFORE the service begins.

Announcements

Girls Night Out! Be sure and sign up next Sunday for the Girls Night Out, to be held June 2nd, beginning at 6:30pm at the Fellowship Hall. Let us know if you are coming and how many guests. If you wish to help with the refreshments or prizes, mark that on the sign-up as well. You won't want to miss this chance for food, fellowship, fun, and prizes! The sign-up will be posted till May 28th.

LWML Fundraiser: Another sign-up will be posted for the LWML Fundraiser at the Farmer City Heritage Days on May 27th from 11am-7pm. The LWML members are asked to donate pies or brownies for this event. Due to lack of refrigeration, soft pies will not be accepted. Please mark if you are able to work a 2 hour shift the day of the event. Thanks for supporting this LWML Zone project (a scholarship for a student to attend one of the parochial schools in the Danville zone).

Self Care for the Stressed — Love Thy neighbor as thyself, Then God help your neighbor J. Stress is not the event...it is our perception of the event. The perception

- of a threat to my well-being.
- that I'm unable to cope.

So much stress is related to worry about future and past regrets: the inability to stay in the present. Self-care is not "Self"ish.

This is your prescription for the NEW 5 a day.
