Welcome in Jesus' Name

Lutherans believe that Jesus Christ is present in the Sacrament so that we receive His true body and blood along with the bread and wine (Mark 14:22, 24; 1 Corinthians 10:16). We further believe that in this Sacrament, we receive the forgiveness of sins (Matthew 26:28) and strength to live an improved Christian life (Galatians 2:20). A worthy communicant is one who is truly repentant of his/her sins and who resolves to amend his/her life (1 Corinthians 11:28). Furthermore, this Sacrament is not only a communion with Christ (Matthew 18:20; 1 Corinthians 10:16), but also with one another (1 Corinthians 10:17; Acts 2:42). Those desiring to commune with us for the first time should register with the pastor in his office BEFORE the service begins.

Self Care for the Stressed

Love Thy neighbor as thyself. Then God help your neighbor.

Stress is not the event...it is our perception of the event. The perception

- of a threat to my well-being.
- that I'm unable to cope.

So much stress is related to worry about future and past regrets: the inability to stay in the present. Are you living your life according to your values? What is the distance between what I say I believe in and what I actually do? Self care is essential to have the energy to help others. Self care is not "Self"ish, waste of time, or trivial. Why do we embrace full speed living? Which person are you? "Good morning God" or "Good God, morning" Do I give of myself or give up myself?

Care of the caregiver. Be gentle with yourself. Remind yourself that you are a (fill in the blank), not a magician: we cannot change anyone else - we can only change how we relate to them. How do you care for self: relationships, pets, diet, exercise, vices, health, annual physicals?

This is your prescription for the NEW 5 a day.

Rx for Osman Lutheran Church Community

Gratitude: 5x/day

Nature: gardening, wildlife, walks, water 5x/day

Solitude: being quiet within, breathing, quietness 5x/day

Sabbath: What is it? Where is it in your life? Practice Sabbath 5x/day

Be still 5x/day

Romans 12:2 by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship.
