Sermon

Installation of church officers

Prayers

Offering: Offering plates are available in the back of the church.

Communion Liturgy – page 208

Distribution: Masks are still required. Communion for those outside in cars will still be the first part of the communion distribution. The distribution will take place with the elder and pastor going out the front door and meeting the cars as they pass by the sidewalk. Communion for those seated inside will follow. Communicants will be ushered to the FRONT of the church by households. Once they have communed, they will return to their pews by the outside aisle. The service will then end with the communion liturgy. Pastor will greet (without shaking hands) at the end of the service.

Announcements

The family of Moneta McCleary would like to extend our thanks to everyone who called, sent a message or card, gave a donation, provided food, and attended her burial service. A special thank you to Pastor McPike who provided a wonderful Christian gravesite service. Moneta loved her church and church family with a passion, and all of you were very special to her and her family. May she now rest peacefully in the arms of our Lord. Revelation 21:4 says, "He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning nor crying nor pain any more, for the former things have passed away."

Special meeting of the Voters' Assembly will be held TODAY after the church service to ratify the 2022 budget. This was omitted from the annual meeting last week.

Installation of newly elected church officers will take place today after the sermon. They were elected at the congregational meeting last Sunday. Elected as chairman was Rick Hardesty, as trustee was John Grussing, as elders were Jim VanWakeman and Don Warsaw, and as assistant finance secretary was Brenda Hendricks. There were no candidates for the position of treasurer. Thanks to the outgoing church council officers – Steve Martin and John Lammle - for dedicating their time and energies to the work of the church. Thanks to Dwight Hooker, Chase Zimmerman, Lee Whitehouse, Barb Whitehouse-Gercken, and Deb Lammle for their continued service to the church council.

Quilting! The ladies of the congregation are invited to help tie quilts for Lutheran World Relief on Monday, February 7th and on Wednesday, February 9th in the fellowship hall. On February 7th the ladies will begin at 8 AM and on February 9th they will begin at 12:30.
