Service of the Sacrament

Communion Liturgy starting on page 160

Distribution: Masks are recommended. Communion for those outside in cars will still be the first part of the Communion distribution. The distribution will take place with the elder and pastor going out the front door and meeting the cars as they pass by the front sidewalk. Communion for those seated inside will follow. Communicants will be ushered to the FRONT of the church by households. Once they have communed, they will return to their pews by the outside aisle. The service will then end with the Communion Liturgy. Pastor will greet (without shaking hands) at the back of the church after church.

Announcements #1

With new state CDC guidelines in effect, our policy is that masks are recommended, but not required. We still prefer that the members space apart in the pews. Communion procedures will be the same.

Our Sympathy goes to the family and friends of Sharon McPike, Pastor McPike's mother, who was called to her eternal home on Thursday, February 17th. Her services were held on Tuesday, February 22nd at Prince of Peace Lutheran Church in Martinsville, Indiana. May God comfort all those who mourn. Her obituary is printed on an insert in today's bulletin.

February 13th was the 5th Anniversary of Rick Hardesty's heart transplant! It has been a wild 5 years, but then again ... 5 years? How time flies! Rick and I cannot thank each of you enough for all your kind thoughts and prayers over the years. He arrived at Barnes Hospital in St. Louis on December 28, 2016, and he had the heart transplant on February 13, 2017. He came home on March 6, 2017. During our stay at "Camp Barnes", as we called it, we were blessed to be visited by Pastor Fale, a dear friend of Pastor McPike, who was in the St. Louis area. Pastor Fale visited us at Barnes Hospital three times during our stay. The final time, he gave us visiting time, a sermonette, and communion. That afternoon about three hours after Pastor Fale left, we received the call from the heart transplant team that a heart had become available, and it was ear-marked for Rick. It was fate, or a "God-winking" moment that we knew God had our backs! We started yelling and here came the nurses running down the hall, because they had just heard the good news also. There were so many "God moments" that day, and we could not be more thankful. We have so many stories, but this is one of our favorites, and we wanted to share it on this special anniversary! May God bless each and every one of you, our church family.

Sincerely,

Rick and Jill Hardesty

Last week the church cancellation phone call list needed to be used to notify members of the cancellation of church due to icy parking areas. There were some phone numbers that were not correct and have obviously been changed since the printing of the last church directory. If you have a change in your phone number, please notify Rick Hardesty so updates can be made.

Announcements #2

Ladies Aid/LWML will be collecting items for "Love Packages" until the middle of March. "Love Packages" is a non-denominational, not for profit, ministry that equips pastors, missionaries, and teachers all over the world with free Bibles and other Christian literature. Their headquarters is located in Butler, Illinois. All church members are welcome to place items in the boxes located in the back of the church until the middle of March. Following is the list of donations that are acceptable:

Bibles – new or used, any translation, New Testaments, or other portions

Reference Material – Dictionaries, Bible dictionaries, or concordances

Books - All Christian books – adult or children, non-fiction

Magazines and Daily Devotionals – from Christian publishers

Sunday School Materials – teacher manuals, children's quarterlies

CDs, DVDs, Blue Ray - music, movies, Bible studies from well-known Christian speakers

Puppet, Bible Games, Puzzles – anything that helps teach the Gospel, especially to little children

Items not used:

VHS Tapes/ records/8-tracks

Guideposts

Secular books

Thank you to Jeff Warsaw and Don Warsaw who helped plow the snow from the parking lots the last several weeks. Thanks to Steve Warsaw for shoveling and sweeping the sidewalks. The wind and ice complicated these wintry jobs, so we are very grateful for their efforts.

Contribution letters were handed out or were mailed the second week of February. If you contributed to Immanuel Lutheran Church of Osman in 2021 and did NOT receive a letter, please see Brenda Hendricks.

Ash Wednesday worship service will be held THIS Wednesday, March 2nd, at 7 PM. Holy Communion will be served.

Obituary of Sharon McPike

Sharon McPike, 86, died peacefully near midnight, Thursday, February 17, 2022, at Legacy Living, in Jasper, Indiana. The funeral will be Tuesday, February 22, 2022, 11:00 AM at Prince of Peace Lutheran Church, Martinsville, Indiana with Rev. Nathan Janssen officiating. Visitation will be at the church prior to the service starting at 9:30 AM. Burial will be at Cresthaven Memory Gardens Cemetery, in Bedford, Indiana at 2:30 PM the same day. Rev. Nathan Rusert, Emanuel Lutheran Church, Tell City, Indiana will officiate.

Sharon Elaine (Herr) McPike was born October 28, 1935, in Detroit, Michigan, oldest daughter of Warren C. and Naomi F. (Humbaugh) Herr. Her family moved from Detroit to Bedford where she graduated high school in 1953.

On June 6, 1953, she married David D. McPike at Calvary Lutheran Church in Bedford. After living briefly in San Diego and Honolulu, the couple returned to Bedford, where Sharon worked for the Keach and Grove Agency while David matriculated at Indiana University, Bloomington. They moved to Indianapolis in 1958 and lived there until 1974 when they moved to Martinsville where they resided until 2010. Sharon worked for a number of years at First National Bank of Martinsville, retiring as a supervising teller.

Sharon and David split time between their homes in Celestine, Indiana and Loxley, Alabama from 2010 until 2018. In May 2020 they moved to Jasper.

Sharon was a member of Emanuel Lutheran Church, Tell City. At age 12, she began playing organ at Calvary Lutheran, Bedford. She was a long time member of Prince of Peace Lutheran, Martinsville. She was a regular organist there and occasionally at Ascension Lutheran, Daphne, Alabama.

Surviving is her husband of nearly 69 years; children, Jeffrey McPike (Sharon Griffin) of Philo, Illinois; Julie (David) Clark of DuBois, Indiana; and Randall (Kelly) McPike of Swayzee, Indiana; siblings, Robert (Phyllis) Herr and Sara Luallen, both of Bedford; sister-in-law, Shirley Herr of High Ridge, Missouri; brother-in-law, Donald (Jan) McPike of Bloomington, California. Grandchildren, Matthew (Emily) Clark of Birdseye, Indiana; Nathan (Jasmine) Clark of Schnellville, Indiana; Sara Clark of Evansville, Indiana; Sara McPike and Ryan McPike, both of Urbana, Illinois; Nicholas (Alyssa) McPike of Greentown, Indiana, and Cassie McPike of Swayzee; also, three great-grandchildren, Sophia Clark, Ellowyn McPike, and Marlaina McPike.

With angels and with archangels and with all the company of heaven, Sharon now lives among that great host, arrayed in white - all those who died with faith in Christ Jesus - including her parents (1983, 1996), her oldest son Thomas Dean (1959), brother-in-law George Luallen (2009), and youngest brother, Randall C. Herr (2013).

Memorial contributions can be sent to Prince of Peace Lutheran Church, Martinsville, or Emanuel Lutheran Church, Tell City.

(Any member who would like to give a memorial to either church can place it in the offering plate in an envelope labeled for memorial. The memorials will then be sent to the appropriate places.)
