Announcements #1

Mowing schedule! The schedule this year lists the week that the volunteer needs to mow. It is recommended to mow on Thursday through Saturday of that week, so it looks nice for Sunday. If you have misplaced your schedule which was in the April newsletter, there is one on the back bulletin board. If you have any questions, contact trustee Lee Whitehouse.

The week of October 9 – 15 – Steve Martin

The week of October 16 – 22 – Brenda Hendricks

An author among us! Annette Warsaw has had a selection printed in a book titled Life.... Repurposed. It is a book filled with stories of grace, hope, and restored faith. Her selection is titled “Worn Yet Wanted”. The paperback book is available for purchase for $10. There are a few copies on the back pew. There is also an envelope to put the money in on top of the books.

LWML Sunday was celebrated last Sunday, however, the quilts and dresses are still on display today. After today the quilts will be boxed and taken to Flatville to be added to a semi to be transported to a warehouse for Lutheran World Relief. A few of the quilts will be taken on October 22 to Springfield to a semi to be transported to a warehouse for Orphan Grain Train. The dresses will be sent to a warehouse in Michigan for Dresses for Africa. There are also some mite boxes on the back table if you would like to help support the mission work of the Lutheran Womens Missionary League. You may return the boxes at any time by placing them on the elder pew.

Benefit Soup Supper is scheduled for Saturday, November 12th in the fellowship hall. The recipient will be Janice Harden, a Bellflower resident who has been battling cancer for several years. There will be more details to follow.
