Service Notes: November 6 is the day the church has set aside to commemorate “All Saints” - those who have died with faith in Christ numbered with the saints in heaven. Historically, there are two days. November 1 is for those more notable saints, such as the Apostles and others of greater stature, and November 1 is the day of “All Souls” which includes everyone who has died in the Christian faith. Over the years, “All Saints” has come to be the commemoration of both. This is especially the case in the Lutheran Church, as all who die with saving faith in Christ are of equal stature with the saints in heaven. This is the Church’s Memorial Day. As you sing All Saints hymns today and hear readings about the gathering of saints in heaven, picture in your minds those you love who are no longer living in this life but are in the mansion of heaven. So also, do we look to join them someday! Paraments are white, the color of purity, as the saints “have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.”

Being Commemorated today are the saints who joined the great host of heaven from Immanuel over this past year. We are ALL SAINTS because of our faith in Christ, and as we give thanks for those who have gone before us, we praise not them nor their goodness, but Christ and His work that their faith relied on for their lives here on earth. Today we remember the following including the date they were born into God’s Kingdom in eternity: Moneta McCleary (January 6, 2022) and William “Bill” McCleary (April 27, 2022). May God continue to bless those surviving these saints now in heaven until we are all reunited in eternity.

Flowers on the altar today are given to the glory of God by Connie and Don Warsaw who will be celebrating their 53rd Wedding Anniversary later this month.

Mowing Schedule for the remaining weeks in November will be handled by the trustees.
