Divine Service, Setting Three

Welcome in Jesus' Name! Lutherans believe that Jesus Christ is present in the Sacrament so that we receive His true body and blood along with the bread and wine (Mark 14:22, 24; 1 Corinthians 10:16). We further believe that in this Sacrament, we receive the forgiveness of sins (Matthew 26:28) and strength to live an improved Christian life (Galatians 2:20). A worthy communicant is one who is truly repentant of his/her sins and who resolves to amend his/her life (1 Corinthians 11:28). Furthermore, this Sacrament is not only a communion with Christ (Matthew 18:20; 1 Corinthians 10:16), but also with one another (1 Corinthians 10:17; Acts 2:42). Those desiring to commune with us for the first time should talk with the pastor BEFORE the service begins.

Announcements #1

About today's service: What is the feast of Holy Trinity? It is the Sunday that stands between the "Festival half" of the church year, framed by Christmas, Easter and Pentecost, and the non-festival half lasting all the way to the Sunday just before Advent. It is the newest of the church festivals, being celebrated regularly for only the last 691 years. The Festival half of the church year looks at God's works in Christ. The rest of the year will look at God's work in His people – what the Triune God is doing in us.

The Feast of the Holy Trinity is not a time for lectures on the nature of God, a commemoration of doctrine, or a celebration of a theological abstraction. God's self-revelation to us is a revelation not of what God is, but Who God is. When a Christian says "God," they are speaking of the eternal, unbegotten Father, who reveals Himself to His creation in His only-begotten Son, through Whom the Father breathes out to us the Holy Spirit. (extracted from "Concordia Pulpit Resources", Vol. 32, Issue #3).

Mowing Schedule! The schedule this year lists the week that the volunteer needs to mow. It is recommended to mow on Thursday through Saturday of that week. If you have any questions, contact trustee Jeff Warsaw or John Grussing. Mowing Schedule:

The week of June 15 – 21 – Chase Zimmerman

The week of June 22 – June 28 – Skinner Johnson

July 4th Bake Sale! The Ladies Aid/LWML ladies will be hosting the July 4th Bake Sale in Bellflower on Friday, July 4th. It will be served at the Bellflower Fire House beginning at 7:30 AM. All ladies and men of the congregation are welcome to bake goods for this event. You can bring your "goodies" to the church hall refrigerator the day before or you can bring them before 7:30 on July 4th to Bellflower.

Announcements #2

The Church Council will meet THIS Wednesday, June 18th, at 6:30 in the fellowship hall.

Thanks goes out to several members who helped make the Confirmation reception last Sunday a success. Out of nineteen invitations sent, six confirmands accepted the invitation to attend. One of those six was unable to attend at the last minute. Linda Amdor, Doug Peyton, Mark Wood, Jill Hardesty, and Tena Sprau were in attendance for the reception of cake and punch after church. A small gift was handed out by Debbie Lammle, after the Pastor announced the classes of 1971-1978. Pictures were taken and fellowship followed. Thanks to the members of the congregation who stayed to visit in the hall. Thanks also to Terri Hooker who helped decorate the tables, to Jerry Niemann for helping serve, and to Jane Poppe for helping clean up afterwards. Thanks for helping make it a day to remember!

The Mission "Outreach" Committee would like to remind everyone to complete and return the survey recently mailed to you. It is an opportunity for everyone to offer comments and suggestions on what our church is doing right and areas for possible improvement. Thank You!

The LWML National Convention will be held in Omaha, Nebraska from June 26 - 29. There are over 3000 ladies registered for this event. One of the activities which has been a tradition for many years is a mission walk. On that Saturday afternoon many ladies will walk over the bridge and back that is on the Iowa/Nebraska border. Pledges that have been collected by the participants will support the chosen grants that will be voted on for 2025 – 2027 biennium. Connie Warsaw and Brenda Hendricks will be attending this event. If you choose to donate to help these mission projects, please make checks payable to LWML and write WALK on the memo line. We hope you will be a part of the larger mission of spreading God's Word around the world.
